

YOUNG VANCOUVER musicians will combine for a performance in the living room concert series here Sunday.

Unusual combination for Sunday concert

An unusual combination of voice, flute and harp will comprise the program to be presented for the second of the Living Room Concert Series to be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. in Salmon Arm Motor Hotel.

Young Vancouver musicians, Anne Rally, Merisa Spencer and David Bull, have been much acclaimed for their interesting and imaginative choice of program material, which, with their accomplished musicianship, promises a memorable recital.

Tickets may be obtained from the Talisman. The Community Arts Council strongly urges they be obtained as soon as possible as accommodation is limited.
